SUBJECT: SAM ANNERINO, JR.
EXTORTIONATE CREDIT TRANSACTION

DATE: 7/20/71

OO: Chicago

SUBJECT SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS, KNOWN TO HAVE A FIREARM IN HIS POSSESSION.

Re PX telephone conversations with CG, 7/7/71.

Enclosed for Chicago is one envelope containing papers believed to have been discarded by the subject.

Referenced calls were based on inquiries by the Scottsdale PD, Scottsdale, Arizona, concerning the subject. Subject had stated to Scottsdale PD Detectives he had been interviewed by the FBI in Chicago on 7/6/71. Inquiry by Phoenix FBI with Chicago verified this. This letter is being furnished Chicago for information.

The following information was supplied by Detective [] and Detective [] Scottsdale PD:

On 6/30/71 ^{SAM ANNERINO} the subject was the victim of an attempted "narcotics sale rip-off". The subject had made arrangements with local marijuana suppliers to purchase $25,000 worth of marijuana and when the sale was to be transacted three persons attempted to take by force from the subject the $25,000 in cash. The subject reportedly escaped after several gun shots were fired from a variety of weapons, including a shotgun. No one was injured.

Scottsdale Police Department conducted investigation based on a complaint by neighbors in the location where the pay-off was to take place. Found in the area of the apartment house where the attempted rip-off occurred was a box containing the enclosed papers. These papers led to the questioning of SAM ANNERINO, JR., and his ultimate arrest by the Scottsdale PD for no operator's license and carrying 331 - a concealed weapon. The charge of carrying a concealed weapon was reduced to a misdemeanor and on 7/7/71 all charges against ANNERINO were dismissed. At the time of his arrest the subject was not booked, therefore not fingerprinted or photographed.

Scottsdale Police Department questioned ANNERINO extensively concerning his narcotics sale rip-off, ~~the~~ details of which are not pertinent to the current FBI investigation and for the most part will be omitted. Scottsdale PD requested ANNERINO to file an Assault With a Deadly Weapon charge against the local marijuana pushers which were involved in the attempted rip-off. ANNERINO agreed; however, the facts he would testify to were considered by the Scottsdale District Attorney to be insufficient to obtain successful prosecution and the District Attorney advised that the charges not be pressed. Scottsdale advised that they do not plan to carry the investigation any further and it is not anticipated that ANNERINO will be recalled to Scottsdale for any legal proceedings. Of possible interest to the Chicago investigation are the enclosed papers which were assumed to be abandoned by ANNERINO in the vicinity of the apartment where the shooting took place; however, ANNERINO was not seen in the vicinity of the box. These papers were in a box found by the Scottsdale PD. Contained in the Scottsdale PD investigations were the following items of interest:

ANNERINO registered at Motel 6, Scottsdale, Arizona, dates unknown under the alias SAMUEL GOLDBERG, 653 W. 5th Street, Gary, Indiana. Two unknown males believed to be from the Chicago area also occupied the same room. These persons did not register and no description was available; however, one of these persons was in possession of a [redacted] Indiana license [redacted] This is the license number ANNERINO used when he registered at the motel.

ANNERINO indicated to the Scottsdale PD that he could be reached at the following telephone numbers:

PX 179-1
LDM/jsh

b6
b7C

Telephone call, date unknown, was received by ANNERINO at the motel from a female calling from telephone number [REDACTED]

The Scottsdale PD conducted a search pursuant to a search warrant of ANNERINO's 1971 Thunderbird and found in this car were two weapons, a .22 caliber derringer, serial number 2242628, and a P38, serial number 2419T. The derringer was returned to ANNERINO.

Found in the motel room vacated by ANNERINO was a .357 Magnum Colt Trooper, serial number [REDACTED] which ANNERINO denied owning although ANNERINO stated that he thought it was taken from a highway patrolman in Indiana. All guns were clear regarding NCIC.

ANNERINO departed Phoenix on 7/7/71 at 4:10 PM, possibly on American Airlines Flight Astrojet #54, to arrive Chicago the same date 9:20 PM.

Date 7/22/71

SAMUEL ANNERINO, JR., 4262 West 77th Street, Chicago, Illinois, was orally advised of the identities of [redacted] and PETER J. WACKS, JR. as Special Agents (SA) with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). ANNERINO was advised that he was under arrest based upon a bench warrant issued pursuant to an indictment returned by the Federal Grand Jury charging him and others with a violation of the Extortionate Credit Transaction Statute, specifically, Title 18, United States Code, Section 894.

b6

SA WACKS immediately advised ANNERINO of his right to remain silent, anything that he said could be used against him in a court of law, that he had the right to an attorney and to have advice of legal counsel before answering any questions and if he could not afford an attorney one would be appointed for him. ANNERINO indicated that he understood his rights and the general nature of the charges against him.

ANNERINO was then transported to the Chicago Office of the FBI, 219 South Dearborn, Chicago, Illinois, at which time he was photographed and fingerprinted.

ANNERINO was subsequently turned over to the United States Marshal.

SAMUEL ANNERINO, JR., 4262 West 77th Street, Chicago, Illinois, was orally advised that he was charged with a violation of the Extortionate Credit Transaction Statute, specifically Title 18, United States Code, Section 894, relating to extortionate collection of debts. ANNERINO was advised by Special Agent (SA) PETER J. WACKS that he had a right to remain silent and anything that he said could be used against him in a court of law. He had the right to an attorney and to have legal advice from an attorney before answering any questions. If he could not afford an attorney one would be provided for him at the appropriate time.

ANNERINO indicated that he understood his rights and the nature of the charges against him. He further advised that he did not feel that he needed the advice of counsel at the time. In this regard, the following information was furnished voluntarily and freely by ANNERINO:

ANNERINO advised that approximately one month ago, specifically the early part of June, 1971, he became acquainted with an individual known to him only as [redacted] (ph) through a friend identified as [redacted] (ph). [redacted] happened to be visiting [redacted] at his residence, [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. During this meeting [redacted] indicated that he was trying to market a franchise item in the midwest. ANNERINO could not remember exactly what this item was, but according to [redacted] the item was manufactured by a "friend of his" on the west coast.

Subsequently, ANNERINO received a call from [redacted] who asked if ANNERINO would like to accompany him to the downtown loop area of Chicago to meet this "friend" who was attempting to market the item mentioned. [redacted] also indicated that he had some more business in the loop but declined to describe its nature. ANNERINO agreed to meet with [redacted] the next morning.

ANNERINO then met [] drove downtown to the loop area of Chicago in his Ford Thunderbird and parked in the vicinity of [] Streets.

b6
b7c

ANNERINO advised that he and [] walked to the corner of [] Streets at which time [] indicated that he had to make a phone call.

[] indicated upon returning from the telephone call that his friend in the franchise business was not going to be able to meet them.

[] then asked ANNERINO if he would like to make "a couple hundred dollars." ANNERINO indicated that he would. [] stated that "a friend of a friend owed him money as a result of a business deal." ANNERINO indicated that [] did not mention names or the reason why he wanted him to be present. [] told him "just be there."

ANNERINO accompanied [] to a restaurant located near the intersection of [] ANNERINO and [] entered the restaurant. ANNERINO stated that the person or persons that [] expected to meet had not yet arrived. ANNERINO did not want to wait around so he left the restaurant and went for a short (five minutes) walk. ANNERINO returned to find [] seated in a booth near the front of the restaurant with two individuals who were unknown to him. One ANNERINO described as a [] who owed the money. The other was a [] to whom the money was owed.

ANNERINO advised that he joined them in the booth and indicated to the [] herein - often referred to as Number One that if he owed the money he should repay it as soon as possible. ANNERINO stated to Number One that he thought $1,000 should be paid in a week and the balance in monthly payments. ANNERINO was not sure of the total amount of the debt, but thought it amounted to approximately []

CG 179-331

ANNERINO indicated that the conversation at the restaurant was short and that he and [] left together and returned to his car.

b6

On the way back to the car [] said that he had contacted Number One on a previous occasion at his house. [] also stated that Number One intended to call [] seated at the booth in a couple of days and arrange for payment.

ANNERINO indicated that he had driven to the Phoenix, Arizona, area on Tuesday, June 29, 1971, and returned to Chicago on July 4, 1971. The above-described meeting to the best of his recollection took place on a Thursday or Friday of the week prior to his departure. (June 24, or 25, 1971).

ANNERINO indicated that he had seen [] on one other occasion since the meeting at the restaurant in Chicago. ANNERINO saw him in the parking lot of a bar called The [] [] Illinois.

ANNERINO was vague in his recollection of any specific threats to Number One []. However, he did admit that he might have stated to this individual that should the money not be paid promptly he could "get beat." ANNERINO indicated that in his opinion anything less than a statement that someone was going to kill another person was not a threat.

Four indicted in extortion plot

FOUR CHICAGO AREA MEN were arrested on charges of conspiring to use extortion to collect a business debt after two of them allegedly posed as syndicate gangsters.

The four were indicted by a federal grand jury Tuesday, but the indictments were suppressed until their arrest. The four were identified as Brian G. Metrick, 30, of 8101 W. 79th, Oak Lawn; his brother, Jeffrey C. Metrick, 23, of 6850 S. Pulaski; Harold W. Bean, 33, of 5725 S. Neenah, and Samuel J. Annerino Jr., 28, of 4262 W. 77th.

They were indicted under a recently enacted federal law aimed at wiping out the juice loan business. Investigators said Metrick hired his younger brother, Bean and Annerino to collect a debt from Ernest White, who had been associated with Metrick in a North Side executive placement business.

White told investigators he was forced to pay $6,000 on a $2,000 debt after he and members of his family were threatened by the collectors.
